

Sidmouth SCIENCE Festival
Clean Growth Project 2020
January, February and Beyond
What is clean growth and how do we achieve it?
All talks at Kennaway House

January 21st

3.00pm

Café Scientifique: David Ralph, Chief Executive, Heart of the South West Local Enterprise Partnership

What is clean & inclusive growth and what does it mean for the area?

February 18th

3.00pm

Café Scientifique: Prof Brian Golding, Our Fragile Earth; So what do we do?

February 25th

3.00pm

Talk: Tom Powell, University of Exeter, Ecosystem Recovery

February 26th

1.00pm

Visit to Cranbrook Combined Heat and Power plant (CHP)

See website for booking

7.30pm

Talk: Prof Evan Parker, New Thinking on Clean Growth

Art Competition displayed February 25th and 26th and judged by attendees

Short Story Competition judged by Penguin author Jane Corry concluded in February

March 17th

Café Scientifique: Nigel Dutt, Passive House Construction Project

Participants wanted to take part in a Focus Group building on the information from this project to suggest how to green up Sidmouth improving biodiversity and horticulture. Contact info@sidmouthsciencefestival.org

Young Enterprise Project at Sidmouth College themed on Clean Growth

For more details see www.sidmouthsciencefestival.org

