

Planetarium Show Information

11:15 – 11:45 The Sky Tonight: This show is suitable for children +7 years old and their families. During the show you will be taken through the night sky and shown the major constellations and what to look out for.

12:00 – 12:30 Story Telling Under the Stars with Mike O’Leary: This show is suitable for children +6 years old and their families. Mike O’Leary will take you through the myths and legends to be found in the night sky, which dates back to Greek and Roman times. These myths are stories of Greek and Roman gods; they often feature heroic battles against terrible creatures.

13:00 – 13:45 Astronomy for Kids with Mac Currie: This show is suitable children of all ages and their families. Mac Currie will give a fun introduction into the World/Universe of Astronomy.

14:15 – 14:45 Story Telling Under the Stars with Mike O’Leary: This show is suitable for children +6 years old and their families. Mike O’Leary will take you through the myths and legends to be found in the night sky, which dates back to Greek and Roman times. These myths are stories of Greek and Roman gods; they often feature heroic battles against terrible creatures.

15:15 – 15:45 The Sky Tonight: This show is suitable for children +7 years old and their families. During the show you will be taken through the night sky and shown the major constellations and what to look out for.